

23rd Annual B.R. Cohn Charity Events
Fall Music Festival & Celebrity Golf Classic
October 2nd ~ 5th, 2009

Venue Guidelines & Answers to Frequently asked Questions

- Parking located at Sonoma Developmental Center, with bus shuttle service to the event SDC is located at 15000 Arnold Drive, Glen Ellen. (Highway signs will direct traffic for parking ~ do not go to the winery, there is not on-site parking available.) Buses will drop off and pick up at the concert front entrance & will run throughout the day to SDC
- Shuttle starts at 8:30am ~ Gates open at 11am and concert starts 12 noon.
- Handicap parking is available at the winery, along with a handicap accessible seating area. (Please show blue placard.)
- Will Call & Box office is located at the concert entrance (where bus drop off is).
- General Admission is first come first serve basis ~ there are no assigned seats. Blankets or stadium pads ok ~ No chairs or umbrellas are permitted.
- No in and out privileges.
- Rain or shine ~ tickets are non-refundable.
- No outside food or drinks ~ Variety of food available to purchase: Alex's Catering (gourmet sandwiches, salads and misc.), Sonoma Sausage, E-Saan Thai Food and Ben & Jerry's Ice Cream of Sonoma.
Wine, Beer, Sodas and Waters also available to purchase
- Young children are allowed but not advised to attend.
No dogs allowed except service dogs.
- Weather is usually 70's during the day and cooler in the evening – dress is casual.
Check out www.weather.com
- Lodging information: www.staysonoma.com
- B.R. Cohn Charity Events encourages you to act responsibly.
Please don't drink and drive.
- Estimated Tax deductible portion of 2009 event tickets: Saturday and Sunday $325 VIP ($175 tax deductible), Auction Dinner $125 ($35 tax deductible), Golf $500 ($100 tax deductible).
General Admission ticket costs exceed the fair market value allowable for deduction.
Please consult your tax advisor for further guidelines.